Subject: Point of Contact for Selected Initiatives

The National Science and Technology Center (NSTC) is becoming involved in an increasing number of national initiatives that depend on our technical resources and expertise. Many of these initiatives have not had a designated point of contact at the Center, and consequently, it is difficult for others to know who to share information and coordinate with. Therefore, I have decided to assign individual staff as the point of contact for the initiatives listed below. Additional initiatives will be added to this list as they are identified. The assigned point of contact will be responsible for staying current on the status of the initiative and provide briefings to our leadership team regarding significant activity as it relates to the initiative. NSTC staff who are working on any of these initiatives are expected to keep the designated point of contact advised of work they are doing on the initiative.

The initial list of initiatives and point of contact are:

Initiative	Point of Contact
Fiscal Year 2003 Focus Areas	Wendy Bullock
National Assessment Prototype Project	Vickie Josupait
ReGap	Dianne Osborne
Great Basin Restoration Initiative	Bruce Durtsche
Sagebrush/Sage Grouse Issues	Bruce Durtsche
Fire Restoration Initiative	Susan Goodman
Deferred Maintenance and Engineering	Bob Hart
Enterprise GIS Initiative	Jim Turner
Geospatial Data Standards	Mary Beth Stulz

Initiative	Point of Contact
BLM Science Strategy Implementation	Phil Dittberner
NSTC Project Review Board Support	Bruce VanHaveren
Planning	Brian St. George
Invasive Species	Phil Dittberner
Colorado River Salinity Report to Congress	Bill Carey
OHV Strategy	Fred Batson
Wild Horses	Dick Stark
Communication Towers	Elizabeth Smith
NLCS	Bruce VanHaveren

If you have additional initiatives that you believe would benefit by having an NSTC point of contact designated or if you have any questions or comments relating to the designation of the point of contact or his/her role, please contact me.
